

LIST OF SELECTED PROJECT PROPOSALS In the framework of the Call for Proposals (CFP) of the project: Enhancing Social Protection for Migrants in Vulnerable Situation in Serbia* supported by the Swiss State Secretariat for Migration (SEM)
KEY FACTS AND FIGURES The public call was open from 29 January to 20 February 2018 for civil society and youth organizations from Serbia Info-sessions were held in February in Nis and Belgrade. Evaluation was conducted and the projects approved in March 2019 32 project proposals submitted, 11 projects approved
263,225 CHF SEM contribution distributed through the CFP	11 CSO's initiatives to be implemented in 17 Local Self-Governments	12 Reception and Asylum Centers for migrants and refugees involved	Unaccompanied Migrant Children (UMC) from all Social Protection Institutions and reception centers supported through the initiatives
CLUSTER A: Community-based support programs and organization of leisure time designed and offered to migrant population and migrant youth in reception and asylum centers. TOTAL VALUE: 68,880 CHF
Lead Organization	Project Title	LSG/location(s) of implementation	Project Description
Atina	For and With Refugee and Migrant Women in Serbia	Belgrade (AC Krnjaca), Lajkovac (AC Bogovadja), Vranje, Bujanovac	Comprehensive support and case management for migrant/refugee women and children victims of gender-based violence, thus decreasing the risks of violence and exploitation, as well as empowering migrant women for peer support on recognizing violence, exploitation, stereotypes, prejudice and discrimination.
Novi Sad Humanitarian Centre	Threads of Hope - Sewing Workshop in Adasevci	Adasevci	Provision of daily occupational and social activities of particular importance in circumstances of longer-term stay in the collective accommodation of the reception centers, as well as opportunity for development of vocational skills that can be useful in the future and contribute to local integration.
Psychosocial Innovation Network	Getting Young Refugees Involved: Additional Education for Integration	Belgrade (AC Krnjaca, Institute for education of children and youth, Center for protection of infants, children and youth, Branch "Jovan Jovanović Zmaj")	Provision of creative, psychoeducational and IT workshops and language classes for UMC in order to develop transferable education and skills; enable peer time with local youth and support creation of social bonds and networks; and improve wellbeing, self-confidence, and mental health of UMC.
Center for Civil Society Development PROTECTA	United in Differences - Social inclusion of migrants through artistic performance	Nis (Institute for youth education), Pirot, Vranje	Enhance communication capacities and decrease language barriers of UMC through specialized education program and language workshops, as well as to increase interactions and inclusion/social cohesion through the use of well-known Forum Theater in working with young people, especially on sensitive topics.
Spark	Stronger together	Loznica (Banja Koviljaca)	Supporting interaction of migrant youth and their local peers in Banja Koviljaca by provision of workshops promoting transfer of knowledge and experience on topics of mutual interest, increasing the quality of free time in and out of the reception center with regular activities which contribute to the establishment of healthy habits as well as community based social cohesion activities, especially for disadvantaged or less-involved for groups.
Centar for Affirmation of Children and Youth - CADO	Hand in Hand	Lajkovac (AC Bogovadja), Lazarevac (Veliki Crljeni)	Enhancing the quality of young migrants' free time and daily routines through provision of recreational and cultural activities including education on mutual culture, religion, lifestyle and history, contributing to social inclusion, interaction and reducing prejudices between migrant and local youth with active participation in the local community.
Kulturanova	"Can you see me?" Video making for integration of young asylum-seekers in Sid	Sid, Principovac and Novi Sad	Innovative approach and provision of opportunity for young migrants and locals from Sid and Principovac to develop professional filmmaking skills, using youth work and culture as a tool for social inclusion: making short movies on topics of common interest which contribute to reducing the social distance, increasing acceptance and raising awareness in the local communities.
CLUSTER B: Support programs and/or programs creating conditions for increasing the availability and accessibility of protection services for migrants in vulnerable situation, protection, promotion and realization of human rights, empowerment and inclusion within the local community. TOTAL VALUE: 194,345 CHF
Lead Organization	Project Title	LSG/location(s) of implementation	Project Description
Belgrade Centre for Human Rights	Towards sustainable community-based protection for vulnerable migrants in Serbia	Belgrade, Loznica, Niš, Sjenica, Tutin, Pirot, Dimitrograd, Bosilegrad, Vranje, Bujanovac, Bogovada	Improving protection services for UMC through multi-stakeholder capacity building, introducing also youth workers as a particular category trained and sensitized to work with vulnerable migrants; in parallel improving access to protection and psychosocial support services for migrants through creation of migrant-inclusive strategy and coordination model in the local communities.
Info Park	Children On The Move	Belgrade (AC Krnjaca), Sjenica, Pirot	Provision of regular access to safe spaces to unaccompanied and separated UMC with quality services and workshops which build and support their resilience and assets for psycho-social development and growth, including informal education on how to claim and protect their rights, leisure time and recreational activities, engagement in peer and community support groups; Safe spaces and workshops will also serve as an entry point for gender-based and other violence disclosure, assessment and referral to relevant actors and services.
Center for Social Integration	We and tHEm ARE Together - HEART	Vranje, Bujanovac, Bosilegrad	Provision of tailored education for migrant and local children/youth as well as local practitioners on children's rights and child protection in the context of migration and migration risks, support to the inclusion in the education system and local communities through sustainable mechanisms for delivering and enhancing support to vulnerable groups of migrants (i.e. children), as well as sensitizing local media and stakeholders on general and local migration issues.
Foundation SOS Children's Villages Serbia	Together for Safer and Better World for Children	Belgrade (Center for protection of infants, children and youth, Branch "Jovan Jovanović Zmaj", Jesuit Refugee Service Serbia Integration UMC House)	Support and empower UMC in residential care, establish new cooperation model – a Youth club – for joint activities of UMC and local children/youth, enabling better communication and peer support, better adaptation and integration in the education system and increased knowledge and skills, while simultaneously enhancing capacities of professionals working with vulnerable children.

*The project "Enhancing Social Protection for Migrants in Vulnerable Situation in Serbia" is implemented by the International Organization for Migration (IOM) with the support of the Swiss State Secretariat for Migration (SEM) in cooperation with the Ministry of Labour, Employment, Social and Veteran Affairs of the Republic of Serbia (MoLEVSA) and the Republic Institute for Social Protection (RISP). This project aims to contribute to strengthening social protection of migrants in Serbia through increasing the availability and quality of social services as well as community-based support programs. It aims to do so by focusing on institutional improvements through capacity building and systemic availability of specialised psychosocial services and diversification of migrant support programs by engaging community resources, so that migrants enjoy enhanced psychosocial protection, which is accessible and tailored to their needs.